Seminar on “Roles & Responsibilities in Financial Services Organization”

A financial services organization provides financial services to individuals and corporations that includes a variety of financial firms such as banks, investment houses, stock exchanges, stock broking firms, mutual fund houses and insurance companies. This industry offers a variety of career opportunities, for finance specialization as well as ample opportunities are available for persons with marketing, human resource, business analytics & operations management background.

In accordance with the Institute's motive of providing continued career guidance to the students, a seminar was organized on “Roles & Responsibilities in Financial Services Organization” in association with Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) - National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM) on February 24, 2022. The seminar was attended by 41 students. The objective was to enhance awareness about ‘Roles and Responsibilities in Stock Market’, provide guidance about the ongoing SEBI Nation Wide quiz & motivate students to participate.

The seminar started with the opening remarks by the Director, Dr. Bharat Kasar. The guest speaker, SEBI - NISM Empanelled Expert, Mr. Rohit Warman, gave an in-depth insight about the career growth & development, various roles & responsibilities available for various subject specializations in financial services organizations. The deliberation was followed by a ‘question & answer’ session. The seminar was anchored by Ms. Bhargavi Namanna & Ms. Prajakta Bochara. Vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Yamini Gaikwad, student of MBA I year.
